You are this school . . . this is your year . . .
your chance . . . you either make it or you don't
. . . for some it's the first year away from home
. . . and a new beginning . . . for others this has been home for four years . . . now a new beginning.

You are a Freshman . . . You're scared, excited, apprehensive . . . can't believe it's happening to you . . . You ask yourself — "What am I doing in college?" . . . you are new blood . . . you're lectured to, indoctrinated . . . "a dirty rat" . . . you're sold to somebody they call an upperclassman . . . and find out he's no different than you.

It's the time of . . . paper flowers, spray paint, and floats . . . the return of the successful alumni . . . you forget the term paper due Monday, Quarter Grades and the pile of busy work . . .
and you lose yourself in the crowd . . .

This is where you are . . . "Anybody going to THE center?" . . . you flock to this place . . . it feeds you, relaxes you . . . your link with the outside world . . . "Have ya checked your mail yet?" . . . "Hey, I got a letter!" . . . It's the place to see and be seen . . . girl-watching . . . "I gotta use the phone a minute" . . . "What's for dinner?" . . . the line-up at 11:15 . . . your dinner for a number . . . 2408 . . . 3524 . . . 877 . . . "Good afternoon, Lenoir Rhyne College, May I help you?"

You are a competitor . . . It's called SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST . . . In this game you're all alone . . . it's all up to you . . . whether you're in the classroom, on the football field, or the basketball court . . . sometimes you win . . . sometimes you lose . . . It's glory or defeat, but never both . . . Some hate it . . . some love it . . . but either way it's always there.

It's the time of spring . . . It seems new . . .
and something happens . . . you're happy, carefree . . . who cares about classes? . . . It's the time of love . . . of tender kisses . . . everyone looks different somehow . . . a gray world changes to one of green.

You are Lenoir Rhyne . . . It's what you are . . . what you've accomplished . . . what you hope to be . . . You are an individual, yet one of many . . . you are what you are because of those around you . . . Surrounded by different people . . . with different ideas . . . but you are bonded by a common goal . . . For Lenoir Rhyne is people . . .

Like a mighty bird the Lenoir Rhyne Bear football team soared high this year only to be brought down abruptly by the hunter's arrow. The Bears, shooting for their thirteenth conference championship in fifteen years, ripped off five victories before they met defeat, but when defeat did finally come, it came swiftly and often.

After reeling off five impressive wins over Wofford, Presbyterian, Newberry, Guilford, and arch-rival Appalachian, the Bears traveled to Cullowhee to face Western Carolina in what was one of the most important small college games in the South this year. During their five-game winning streak the Bears had compiled impressive offensive and defensive statistics, scoring over 35 points a game and giving up only 8 points per contest. They were ranked the number two small college football team in the nation. Western, however, was not impressed. They, too, were undefeated, had a prolific offensive and stingy defense, and were nationally ranked. The two small-college powers played a relatively even first half with Western going into the locker room with a slight lead, but in the second half the bottom fell out for the Bruins. Turning the ball over numerous times on interceptions or fumbles, the Bears dropped their first decision by the score of 41-25.

The Bears were slow in bouncing back from the defeat at Western. Constantly plagued by interceptions, fumbles, and other mistakes, the Bruins dropped their next three decisions against Carson-Newman, West Chester State, and Elon. The Elon loss cost the Bears the conference crown. A little of the Bruins' season was salvaged in their last game when the Bears bounced back to soundly defeat Catawba, 27-6.

Bear fans and players had a tough year. It is hard to lose when one is not used to it. A mediocre year, such as the one the Bears had this year, is hard to stomach when one is accustomed to excellence. Fans and players must not forget, however, that their football team still finished with a winning record of 6-4, second place in the Carolinas Conference, and a per-game team rushing average that was among the top twenty in the nation.

Despite a four-game losing streak and a 6-4 season, the Lenoir Rhyne Bear football team still placed six men on various All-Conference teams. Named to the official All-Carolinas-Conference squad were full-back Carl Bartles, tailback Mike McRee, end Brian Jack, and tackle George Nazarovitch. Named to the Greensboro Daily News All-Conference squad were fullback Bartles, end Jack, tackle Nazarovitch, tackle Tom Lumsden, and guard John Shroeder.

The dynamic backfield duo of Bartles and McRee was devastating. Bartles broke the conference rushing record and captured the rushing title with an impressive 119 yards per-game average, and McRee combined his rushing and passing talents to produce a total-offense average of 172.3 yards a game. Jack and Shroeder were also outstanding offensive performers. Jack grabbed 32 passes for 486 yards and 7 touchdowns, and Shroeder opened holes for the Bruin runners all season with his fine blocking. Nazarovitch and Lumsden headed up a tough Bear defense. They were almost immovable against the run and numerous times they trapped the enemy quarterback behind the line of scrimmage for lost yardage.

All the Bruin seniors performed well in this their last year with the Bears. Nazarovitch has already been mentioned, but other Bear seniors played admirably as well. Toby Morgan again proved to be a dangerous runner and pass receiver. Pete Paddon and Pete Palmer, the pair of ends from Canada turned in good years, and Mike Gilbert did an excellent job of spelling tailback McRee. Homer Loan played well after being switched from the defensive squad to the offensive team. Bear seniors on the defensive team also did well with John Hinkle and Doug Cole playing on the line and Benny Moose and Mike Trempe holding down the secondary.

ALTERNATE CHEERLEADERS: Viveca Wilson, Bobbi Birmingham, Linda Boyer, Alene Moseley, and Nancy Carter.

In a conference as evenly matched as it has been in many years the Lenoir Rhyne Bear basketball team proved itself to be one of the better ball clubs in the league all year. For most of the year the Bruins held second place in the conference, but a heart-breaking loss to the league-leading Guilford Quakers in their last conference match dropped them in the standings.

The Bear team compiled a dismal record on the road, losing most of their away games, but at Shuford Gymnasium it was a completely different story. After losing their opening game in Shuford to Johnson C. Smith, the Bear team reeled off 11 straight home victories before losing to Guilford.

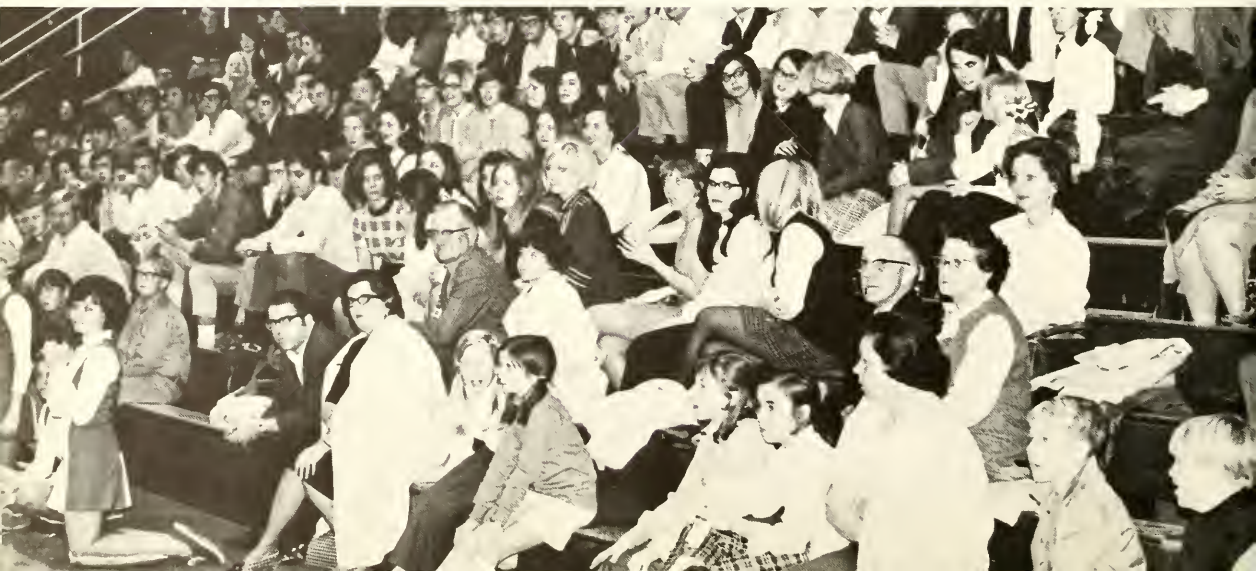

One characteristic of the Bruin team came through in all their games, however. They were no push-over for any of their opponents. Not only did the Bears compile a winning record for the year, but they were also victims of several close losses. The Bruins were in almost all of their games up until the final buzzer, and if they had scored a few more key points, their winning record could have been much better.

The Bruins had two impressive victories over conference opponents. In mid-season the Bears travelled to High Point to meet a Panther team that had not lost at home in 20 games. Shooting over 55 per cent from the floor and out-rebounding the Panthers by over 20 retrieves, the Bear team ran the Panther team out of their own gym by the score of 98-74. Later in the season the Bruins met Newberry in a match to determine who would take over second place in the conference. The Bears dominated every phase of the game and beat the Indians by a sizeable margin.

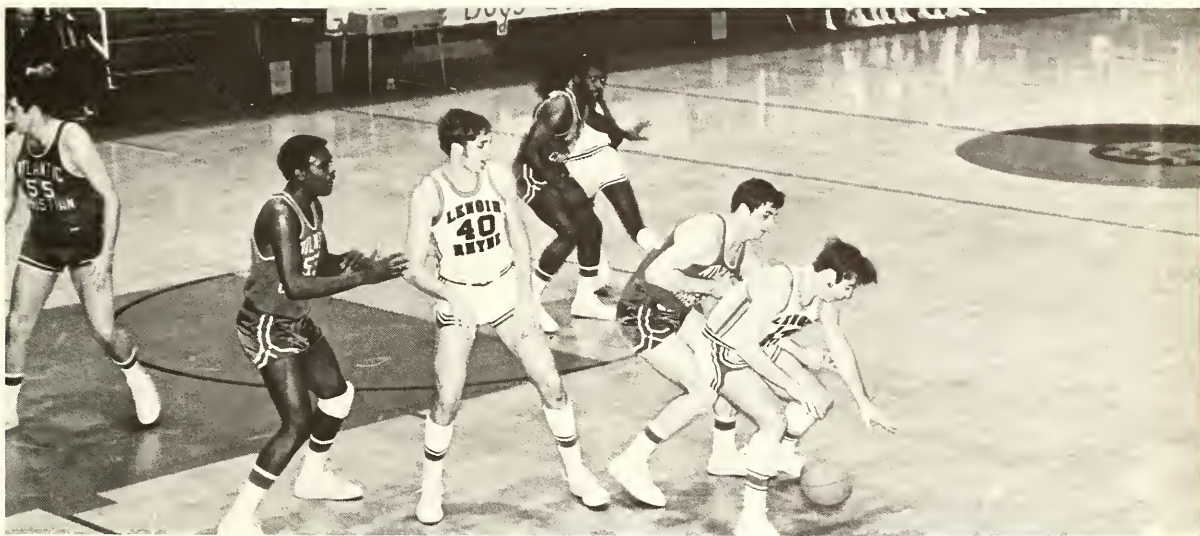

As the Bears went into the conference tournament at the end of February they were ranked as one of the teams that could take it all for the conference championship.
